

TO TEACH WOMEN CHEAP CANNING IN 60 SCHOOLS

Department of Markets to Open
Courses—Big Hotels
Will Aid.

THE Department of Markets, through Mrs. Louis Reed Weizmiller, Deputy Commissioner, is co-operating with the public schools in an effort to teach housewives are art of canning. They are preparing to open sixty stations in schools where housewives can take courses in this subject. The department has obtained sugar at 23 1/2 cents a pound, and also fruits and vegetables at wholesale prices, which will be distributed among women for demonstration purposes. The classes will be taught by Mrs. Weizmiller and Miss Schermerhorn, who is head of the Domestic Science Department in the public schools. A feature will be an exposition of the art of canning without the use of sugar or other preservatives. Mrs. Weizmiller said she also is preparing to give courses in cooking, and has arranged with nearly all the leading hotels for the giving of practical demonstrations in cooking and the making of palatable dishes economically. Classes for the hotel courses will be formed about the middle of August.

MRS. CAVANAUGH SENT TO PRISON

Bronx Angel of Tenants Sentenced to From Five to Ten Years.

Mrs. Alice J. Cavanaugh, formerly a member of the Mayor's Committee on Rent Profiteering, convicted of larceny in connection with a shortage in the $257,000 she collected from tenants in rent disputes, to-day was sentenced by County Judge Gibbs of the Bronx, to not less than five years and not more than ten years in Auburn State Prison for Women.

Mrs. Cavanaugh, called the "Angel of the Tenants," was active in most of the landlord and tenant disputes in the Bronx. Tenants in many buildings paid their rents to her, to be held until the courts disposed of their appeals for relief from profiteering.

This money, Mrs. Cavanaugh testified at her trial, was kept by her in her handbag or hidden in her home, and amounted to as much as $70,000 in one week. Judge Gibbs, in sentencing her, declared Mrs. Cavanaugh a cold blooded, calculating thief. His remarks were heard by hundreds of tenants who had paid their rents to Mrs. Cavanaugh.
